

SMARTER THAN FIFTH GRADERS!

East Central Oklahoma Blood Institute (ECOBI) blood donor and teacher Loretta Feiler has been inducted into the 2007 Donation Hall of Fame, sponsored by Fenwal, Inc. Loretta was one of 13 individuals recognized nationwide for demonstrating extraordinary commitment to blood donation. ECOBI and Fenwal representative Dianne Wagner bestowed the prestigious honor on Feiler in the presence of her students at the new Ada Blood Center.

Years ago, ECOBI and Loretta joined efforts to teach sixth grade students about giving the gift of life. While ECOBI representatives talk about blood donation, the school's 150-plus sixth graders see a real-life example of the process as a volunteer donates blood before the class. Fenwal is a global healthcare company focused on the development, manufacture and marketing of products and services for the transfusion medicine industry.
